The Questions & Answers (Q&As) provide information about the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program, authorized by Section 428L of the Higher Education Act of 1965 as amended. We have grouped the Q&As into five categories: Program Overview, Eligibility Requirements, Application Procedures, Service Agreement, and General Information.

Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program Overview

Q1 What is the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program?

A1 The Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program was established to encourage qualified individuals to enter and continue employment as civil legal assistance attorneys. Under the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program, an eligible student loan borrower, with one or more eligible loans, may receive up to $6,000 in student loan repayment for each year of completed service up to an aggregate total of $40,000. Loan repayment commitments are limited to the amount appropriated for the program for a given fiscal year by the Congress and are only available to eligible applicants until those funds are fully committed. Therefore, awards under this program will be available to eligible borrowers on a first-come/first-served basis.

- Determination of first-come, first-served will be based on the date and time the borrower's application was received by the U.S. Department of Education.
- A borrower may not receive benefits for the same service under both the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program and the Loan Forgiveness for Service in Areas of National Need Program under section 428K of the HEA, 20 U.S.C 1078-11, or the Public Service Loan Forgiveness Program under section 455 (m) of the HEA, 20 U.S.C. 1087e (m).

Service Agreement is signed unless the borrower is involuntarily separated from that employment.

- If the borrower fails to meet the continued employment condition, the borrower must repay the Department of Education the amount of any benefits received by the borrower under the Service Agreement.
- If the borrower is involuntarily separated from qualifying employment as a result of misconduct or voluntarily separates from employment before the end of the service period specified in the Service Agreement, the borrower must repay the Department of Education the amount of any benefits received by the borrower under the Service Agreement.
- If a borrower who is required to repay an amount to the Department of Education fails to do so, the amount will be collected by the Federal Government as a federal debt using all the methods provided by law for recovery of amounts owed to the Federal Government.
- The Department of Education makes student loan payments on behalf of the borrower for the period of the agreement, subject to the availability of annual appropriations. If the Congress does not appropriate funds for the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program for a given year, benefits will not be available. A borrower is obligated to complete the entire period covered by the borrower's Service Agreement even if additional loan repayments are not made.
- The Department of Education does not reimburse a borrower for any payments the borrower made on a student loan prior to the date on which the borrower entered into a written Service Agreement with the Department of Education.

Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program – General Information

Q5 Are loan amounts repaid under the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program considered taxable income?

A5 No. According to the IRS, student loan amounts forgiven under the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program are not considered income for tax purposes.

Q6 Is income a factor in determining eligibility for the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program?

A6 No. Income is not a factor in determining a borrower's eligibility for loan repayment under the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program.

Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program Questions and Answers

Q8 Are joint Direct Consolidation Loans (consolidation loans made jointly to married borrowers) eligible for the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program?

A8 Yes. However, if only one of the two borrowers meets the eligibility requirements for the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program, the repayment applies only to the remaining balance of the joint consolidation loan that is attributable to the loans originally received by the borrower who performed the qualifying employment.

Q9 Are PLUS loan borrowers eligible for participation in the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program?

A9 Graduate PLUS borrowers can receive benefits under the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program by working as civil legal assistance attorneys; however, Parent PLUS loan borrowers are not eligible to receive loan repayment under the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program, even if they consolidate these loans. It is important to note that a consolidation loan that includes a Parent PLUS loan is not eligible for repayment under the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program.

Q10 What is considered full-time employment as a Civil Legal Assistance Attorney?

A10 Full-time employment for the purpose of participation in the Civil Legal Assistance Attorney Student Loan Repayment Program means working as a civil legal assistance attorney for the greater of (1) an annual average of at least 30 hours per week, or (2) unless the qualifying employment is with two or more employers, the number of hours the employer considers full-time. Vacation or leave time provided by the employer or leave taken for a condition that is a qualifying reason under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, 29 U.S.C. 2612 (a) (1), is not considered in determining the average hours worked on an annual basis.

Q11 What is the application renewal process?

A11 A loan repayment commitment to a borrower in one fiscal year does not guarantee a commitment for the remainder of the years covered by the borrower's service agreement or in future years. Priority for student loan repayment in any fiscal year is given to borrowers who have received forgiveness benefits during the preceding fiscal year and have not yet completed the three years of service under their first service agreement, and to new applicants who have practiced law for a period of five years or less and have spent not less than 90 percent of that period working as civil legal assistance attorneys.
